

PRATI Srl is aware that the satisfaction of its customers is the main target towards which it must engage in a constant process of improvement of its business, moreover PRATI believes that the protection of the health of the environment and of all those working inside it, are essential factors in the context of the development of the company and consider the environmental impacts and the aspects of safety at work, which are essential elements in the definition of the organization's objectives.

Therefore the company intends to focus on the following aspects:

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuous improvement in the performance of the machinery and services offered to the customer, with the awareness that the quality and the corporate image deriving from it, are the result of the team work. • The company declares to pursue the continuous improvement of environmental performance and safety at work, adopting all the reasonably possible measures to eliminate or minimize the production of pollutant emissions and waste, to limit the use of natural resources and energy, and to ensure the presence of healthy and safe conditions in the workplace. • Whenever possible, the company adopts technological processes aimed at offering the best environmental performance in both technical and economic terms. • The company declares its commitment to provide itself with infrastructure, machinery and equipment that, thanks to continuous technological progress, ensure the improvement of the safety and health of employees in the workplace.
ORGANIZATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The preparation of an organizational structure consistent with the phases of development of the company. • The implementation of an Integrated Management System QHSE (Quality Health Safety Environment) that represents for the company an effective support in its management and control activities and not an unnecessary bureaucratic burden. • Implementation of appropriate software to support the Integrated Management System QHSE.
OBJECTIVES DEFINITIONS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The company undertakes to annually formulate, through its own Management and on the basis of the QHSE Policy, the improvement objectives based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Monitoring carried out as part of the application of the Integrated Management System QHSE, - Measurement of the environmental performance of the company implemented in the initial Environmental Analysis phase, - Assessments carried out in the Company Risk Assessment Document. • The company documents the objectives set and communicates them to those concerned; the objectives are applied, within the limits imposed by market requirements, scientific and technological progress, to all functions and business processes.
TRAINING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training activities for continuous staff update, focused on the needs of the staff professional growth. • The company intends to study ways of empowerment of the individual workers in regard to the importance of operating properly, to ensure safe working conditions to themselves and their colleagues.
COMMUNICATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The company involves all its personnel, operating on behalf of PRATI SRL in any role and position, in their responsibility towards the environment through appropriate awareness raising initiatives and training sessions. • The company makes the QHSE policy available, both to workers by posting it, and to Associations, Organizations and Third parties upon request. • The company is willing to cooperate with Public Authorities, Bodies and Associations competent in Environment and Safety at work, as well as to inform them of the main aspects of its management on environmental and safety matters. • The company encourages initiatives and proposals aimed at encouraging the protection of the environment and safety at work.
LAWS AND REGULATIONS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The company undertakes to continuously implement, any necessary intervention to comply with the laws and / or regulations in force concerning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The realization of your product, - Environmental protection, - Protection of safety and health at work. providing objective evidence of the satisfaction of the same.